Anton Seder Pomegranate Communications 2019-01-15 At the end of the nineteenth century, German artist and professor Anton Seder was appointed founding director of Strasbourgs College of Decorative Arts. Seder (1850-1916) developed the school as an influential artistic force in the Alsace-Lorraine region, creating work that bridged French and German artistic styles and contributed to the development of Art Nouveau. Among Seder's work from this time is Die Pflanze in Kunst und Gewerbe (The plant in art and trade), two volumes of approximately two hundred images, stunning in their artistry and graceful depiction of nature. One hundred thirty years after its publication, this visual tour of the world's plants (and a few animals, if you look closely) represents some of the most vibrant work of the era. The illustrations in this coloring book come from a copy of Die Pflanze held in the collections of the British Library. One page at the back of the coloring book has been left blank, so that you can decoratively document the plant life that flourishes near you. Images

IMPORTANT: watercolor and marker pages have black-backed pages to minimize bleed-through. The paper in this book (depending on where it was printed) is fairly tough, but obviously thinner than watercolor paper. Colors can look splotchy until completely dry. We recommend using a sheet of card stock or plastic to help protect the pages underneath from colors bleeding through as well as potential rub-through of pencil pigments while swatching. You can make PERSONAL COPIES of the charts you plan to use onto your favorite paper or card stock if the paper in this book feels too thin for your needs, or, if you just want to put those pages of the charts you are using into a ring binder for safe keeping. You can also deconstruct this book for ease of use, so feel free to take it apart, keep the pages you are using in one binder, and store the rest in case you need them later. Many office supply stores (and FedEx service centers) will remove the spine and even spiral-bind or punch holes in the book for you for a small fee. If you choose to do it yourself, I have a step-by-step tutorial using another book (Creative Companion Book Binding DIY) on my blog at rubycharmcolors.com. Or keep it as is--the choice is yours! It is meant to be a book that grows along with you and your artistic needs! Happy color swatching!
